2 pinch of white pepper
Kikkoman Toasted Sesame Oil

1 tbsp Kikkoman Naturally Brewed Soy Sauce

PREPARATION

Step 1

For the dumpling dough

Add the flour to a mixing bowl along with the salt. Add water, a little at a time and mix with your fingers until the flour comes together into a rough ball- if the dough becomes too wet, add a little flour until the correct consistency is achieved. Knead the dough for around ten minutes until it becomes smooth and elastic. Leave to rest in a covered bowl for at least 30 minutes or until ready to use.

Step 2

For the dumpling filling

At a drizzle of sesame oil into a saucepan and heat gently. Add the spring onions and ginger and stir fry for 2 minutes until they start to soften slightly but not colour. Add the pork to the same pan and cook until golden brown, then add the rice wine, soy sauce and pepper. Taste to check the seasoning.

Step 3

To make the dumplings

Dust the work surface with flour. Knead the rested dough for two minutes then roll out into sausage shape about 2cm in diameter and divide into equal pieces (around 8). Flatten one piece of dough in the palm of your hand then roll out to a circle about 6cm in diameter. Cover the dough you are not using with a damp tea towel.

Put a teaspoon of the pork stuffing into the centre of the flattened dumpling, fold in half and seal the edges with series of pinches. Repeat to make eight dumplings. Ensure that the made dumplings are resting on a floured surface to prevent them sticking! Allow to steam for a few more minutes, adding a little more water if necessary. The Dough should be translucent when cooked. Remove the pan lid and cook for a final minute. Serve with Kikkoman soy sauce.

Heat a flat bottomed, non- stick frying pan with a little sesame oil. Once hot, place the dumplings into the pan and allow to brown slightly on the bottom, around 2-3 minutes.

Add 3-4 tbsp water and place lid on pan quickly to capture the steam. Allow to steam for a few
