PREPARATION

Step 1

For the avocado cream remove the stone from the avocado, peel the avocado, cut the pulp into large pieces and puree with almond milk and coconut milk. Put the avocado puree in a pot, heat it up and season to taste with lemon juice, sugar, salt and pepper.

Step 2

For the vegetable garnish remove the seeds and webs from the peppers, wash the peppers and cut them into strips. Wash the green beans and cut off the ends. Heat the oil in a frying pan, add strips of paprika and beans, sauté and season with salt and pepper.

Step 3

Heat margarine in a pan, fry the sweet potato slices on both sides at medium heat until golden brown, take them out, put them on a plate and keep them warm.

Step 4

Heat margarine in a pan, fry the sweet potato slices on both sides at medium heat until golden brown, take them out, put them on a plate and keep them warm.

Step 5

Add sugar and apple juice to the pan and let it boil down until the juice thickens. Add soy sauce and bring to the boil again. Put the sweet potato slices back into the pan and caramelise with the sauce.

Step 6

Place the side vegetables on plates, arrange the sweet potato steaks on top, add with the remaining sauce, add the avocado cream next to them and serve.
